My favourite animal is a flamingo. It has small wings. It has big eyes. It has a sharp beak. It has pink and black feathers. It is tall, thin and beautiful.

All About Me

1B Cheng Hei Yeung / Emma

My name is Emma. I am six years old. I am in Class 1B. I live in Hong Kong. My English teacher is Miss Hui. She is nice. My best friend is Natalie. She is kind.

All About Me

1C Tsang Hoi Ching / Sofia

My name is Sofia. I am six years old.
I am in Class 1C. I live in Hong Kong. My English teacher is Miss Wong. She is nice.
My best friend is Emma. She is nice.

My Favourite Animal

1D Ip Ming Hin/ Jack

My favourite animal is a hamster. It is cute and fat. It has soft ears. It has big eyes. It has a small mouth. It has a short tail and small feet.

My Dream Pet

2A Chan Ching Long / Marcus

My dream pet is a hamster. Its name is Pepe. It's the best hamster. It has soft fur, small eyes and small paws. I like its ears because they are very small. It likes to eat pet food. It is playful. It likes to play with my toy and my ball. It is sporty too. It likes to ride the rollers. I love my pet very much.

My Dream Pet

2B Tsoi Yat Long / Jasper

My dream pet is a kitten. It has soft grey fur. It has pointy ears. I like its long, furry tail. It can show the cat's emotion. I don't like its claws because they will hurt me. It likes to eat canned salmon fish best.

It's energetic. It likes to play with cat toys and run around. It's adorable. It enjoys to lick its body and it can attract people's attention. It's shy too because it likes to hide behind the sofa.

My Favourite Place at School

2C Siu Pok Man / Aiden

My favourite place at school is the library. It is on the second floor. It is large, tidy and quiet. We can see bookshelves, storybooks, a chair and a trolley there. We can read books, borrow books, return books and meet my library teacher there. We must put books back on the shelf and wait for our turn in the library. We mustn't eat, drink or tear pages from books there.

In the Park

2D Ko Chi Hin / Jaxton

The children are in the park. It is a sunny day. The park is beautiful. They are skipping and playing football. There is a hot dog. The children like it because it is delicious. There are some tomatoes. They like them because they are yummy and fresh. There is some lemon tea. They don't like it because it is too sour. They mustn't climb the trees. They must keep the park clean.

A Day at the Beach

3A Terence Wong

Yesterday, Peter and his mother had a picnic on the beach. It was hot and sunny. Peter was hungry. He wanted to eat some food. He threw the rubbish on the sand. His mother said, 'Peter, you can't do that!' But he did not listen.

Then, Peter ate a chicken leg. He said, 'Yummy! I like chicken legs very much!' When he finished, he threw the fork on the sand. What a naughty boy!

Next, a girl walked by. She stepped on the fork. 'Ouch! My foot hurts!' the girl cried. Peter was worried about the girl.

Finally, Peter said, 'I am so sorry! Please forgive me.' Peter immediately bowed and apologized to the girl. The girl forgave him and said, 'It's OK. Please don't do it again.'

Cleaning the Classroom

3B Yan Long Yin / Owen

One day after school, Andy, Mary and I are in the classroom. We help cleaning the classroom. Mary cleans the blackboard. Andy cleans the desk and I sweep the floor. We are happy.

Five minutes later, a bee suddenly flies into the classroom. Mary and Andy are scared. The bee flies around Andy. He is very frightened. Mary cries loudly. At the same time, I scream and drop the broom. 'Annoying bee, fly away!' I yell. However, the bee doesn't fly away.

'Don't cry, Mary. I have a good idea,' I say. I open the windows and turn off the lights. Eventually, the bee flies out the windows. 'Hurray! Hurray!' shout Mary and Andy, 'You are clever, Amy.' We are happy and clap our hands.

Cleaning the Classroom

3C Wu Cheng Rui / Andy

One day, my classmates and I are in the classroom. They are Kelly and Andy. We are cleaning the classroom. I sweep the floor. My classmates clean the desks and the blackboard. We are happy.

Suddenly, a bee flies into the classroom through the window. We are scared. Then I throw the broom. Kelly cries and Andy stands still. We are frightened. I shout, 'Help!'

Then, the teacher comes to help us. She opens the doors and the bee flies away. At last, we are safe.

A Trip to the Country Park

3D Lee Ho Wang / Ficus

Today is sunny and hot. Ben and Ken want to breathe some fresh air and have a barbecue. So Ben, Ken and other Cub Scouts have a school picnic in the country park. They are excited and relaxed.

One hour later, they arrive at a barbecue site. Ben and Ken are having a barbecue. They are hungry so they eat some chicken wings, sausages and fish balls. But they are still very hungry.

Suddenly, three monkeys jump out from the tree and they are happy. Ben and Ken drop their food because they are scared. The monkeys jump and jump. They want to take away Ben and Ken's food.

At the end, the teacher comes and scares away the monkeys. Ben and Ken feel relieved. Then, they eat all the food and go home.

A Letter to My Pen Friend

4A Hui Lam Yan / Betty

Yesterday, the weather was good. Timmy and Sam were playing football outside a stranger's house. They were happy and excited. Suddenly, Timmy carelessly kicked the ball at a stranger's window! A woman came out and roared as soon as she saw them. Timmy and Sam were worried and scared. They didn't know what they should do. Everyone who passed by walked away as soon as possible.

After a while, the woman was calm. Timmy was nervous so he covered his eyes with his hands. Sam was also very nervous. He even sweated with fear.

The woman suddenly asked gently, 'If you give me some money to buy a new window, I will forgive you.' Timmy and Sam immediately went home and told their parents what happened. Their parents gave the money for the window.

At last, Timmy and Sam paid the woman the money and left. They learned a lesson. They should not play football outside a stranger's home.

A Toy Car for My Birthday

4B Chow Jeff Myron

Yesterday was my birthday. I was so excited. My dad and I went to the Super Toy Shop. We bought the most expensive red model car in the toy shop. I was excited.

Next, I asked the shopkeeper, 'Can I try the red model car?' She replied, 'OK! But you must be very careful!' I screamed happily, 'Yeah!' Then I tried the car. Someone just told me, 'It's not easy to control the car, child. You need to be patient all the time.' After a while, I knew how to control the car. I said, 'Look at me! I can control the car easily.'

Suddenly, this toy car got out of control. I didn't know how to stop it. The car ran out of the toy shop. I was worried. At that time, Daddy was here. The car stopped at his feet. After that the batteries ran out.

At last, I went back to the shop and told the shopkeeper what happened to the car. Then, she sang a happy birthday song to me. I was excited. I said immediately, 'Thank you!' She answered happily, 'You are welcome!' Then we bought a cake and took my toy car back home to celebrate my birthday.

Finally, I learned how to control the car carefully.

What a lovely day!

Games Day

4C Yeung Sin Tung / Samantha

6th January, 2022

Sunny

Today was the Games Day at my school. I played a dancing game on Nintendo Switch and I joined a dodgeball competition with my classmates. At first, I had a dodgeball competition in the hall. I was excited.

After three competitions, our class didn't get any prizes. The teacher told us that winning or losing a competition is not important. We have to learn how to cooperate with others. I have learnt that sportsmanship and teamwork are important in competitions.

My unforgettable experience was in the exciting dodgeball competition. Since everyone cheered for their class, I was very nervous. I was very happy because I enjoyed the Games Day and I could work with my classmates to finish the game.

A Toy Car for My Birthday

4D Yim Wai Ho, Willis

Yesterday, Dad and I went to Super Toy Shop in a shopping centre in Fanling. We went there at twelve o'clock in the afternoon. I saw a lot of toys in there such as teddy bears, puzzles and model cars. I felt glad. 'It's your birthday today! What toy do you want to buy?' asked Dad. 'Thank you, Dad. Can I buy a model car?' I asked. 'Yes, you can buy a model car.'

Then, Dad bought a red model car for me. I opened it and tried to control the model car. Suddenly, the car was out of control. It ran out of the shop. I wanted to stop it but it was so fast. And then, the model car ran into the lift. The keeper looked around the shop. He saw what happened. He wanted to stop the model car. The other people came and helped me too, but they failed. The lift door closed quickly. I felt so sorry and promised that I would never do that again. I have learnt a lesson that I can't play with the model car in a shopping centre.

A Letter to My Pen Friend

4E Lam Yune Man / Roselle

Dear Joy,

I am Roselle. I am studying in Happy School.

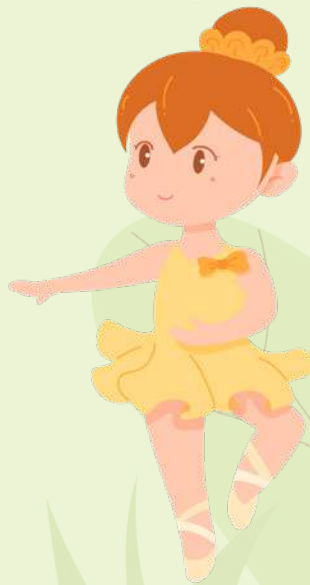

I live in Fanling with my dad, mum and sister. There is a playground near my home.

In my spare time I like doing ballet, cooking and playing the guitar. I always cook lunch by myself. I sometimes play the guitar with my friends.

My dad is very funny. He always tells me jokes. He likes playing table tennis. He sometimes watches TV with me.

Please write soon and tell me about your funny things.

Best wishes,
Roselle

A Trip to Ocean Park

Today was an incredible day! I found out a secret of my friend Daniel! I was very surprised! The weather was great so my friend Daniel and I went to the park to go for a walk. Daniel is short and has thin legs. I am tall with a big mouth and short hair as well as wearing a cap. When I was talking to Daniel happily, we heard a strange sound suddenly. Daniel was listening with his ears carefully. We thought, 'What happened? Is someone screaming?'

After a while, we went to a corner of the park. We sneaked behind a bush to take a clear look. We found a thief who has spiky hair, small ears and small eyes was capturing a fat lady who has a big mouth and was wearing a pair of glasses! The woman was screaming loudly, 'Help! Somebody help!' The thief threatened her with a knife, 'Be quiet! Give me your pearl necklace or else I will hurt you with my knife!'

Suddenly, Daniel said to me, 'Wait here. I will be back later.' Then, he ran off as fast as he could. I was confused about what Daniel was doing. Three minutes later, Daniel came back but he didn't look like Daniel so I asked him, 'Is it you, Daniel?' But Daniel answered, 'I'm not Daniel. I'm Superboy now!' I looked at Superboy Daniel. He was tall and strong with short hair. I was shocked. Superboy Daniel said, 'We won't have much time. I need to rescue the lady now. Bye!' And I answered, 'Okay. Bye Bye.'

At last, Superboy Daniel was flying with his magic cloak quickly. He went to the thief, stopped the thief and said, 'That's not yours!' Superboy Daniel caught the thief and saved the lady. The thief was crying and knelt down, 'Sorry. Please don't hurt me.' But Superboy Daniel answered, 'You're going to jail!' Finally, the woman was cheering excitedly. I was very happy that Superboy Daniel saved the day. I said, 'Good job! Daniel, the Superboy!' And then, I gave him some snacks since he felt tired. We're all happy because nobody was in danger now!

Today was an incredible day! I found out Daniel was Superboy! I hope one day I will be Superboy and save the world with Daniel!

A Day at the Park

5B Tse Cheuk Ting / Justin

One sunny afternoon, Wilson and Ricky went to Fish Park. They went fishing because they wanted to eat some fresh fish for dinner. They found a lake with a lot of fish there. They sat on the rock under a shady tree. 'If I wait patiently, I will get a lot of fish,' Wilson said to himself softly. But Ricky was fishing impatiently because he felt bored.

Just then, Wilson caught a lot of fish. 'I got a fish again. This is the biggest fish,' Wilson shouted loudly and pointed to the fish excitedly. On the other hand, Ricky thought very hard. 'I can't get any fish this time.' Ricky whispered to himself sadly. He was very upset.

Suddenly, Ricky's fishing rod was shaking. 'Look! I think I will get a big fish immediately,' Ricky said to himself joyfully. He pulled the fishing rod with all of his energy. After that, Ricky caught a treasure box. They couldn't believe their eyes! When they opened the box, they screamed their heads off. There was a lot of money and diamonds! He yelled, 'We are going to be rich!' They wanted to take it but they remembered their mother's advice: 'If the thing doesn't belong to you, you should give it to the police.' They thought to themselves.

Finally, they called the police quickly. They gave it to the police. 'You are very honest. If this treasure box is not claimed in one week, it is yours,' the police said seriously. They were cheerful. Ricky didn't have any fish for dinner so Wilson shared some fish with him. What an exciting day!

Yesterday was a lovely sunny day. The sun was bright and the sky was clear. Daniel and I took a walk in the park. I wore a cap and an oversized T-shirt. Daniel has a round face and short hair. Daniel and I chatted cheerfully. Suddenly, we heard a scream. The strange sound came from some green bushes. Feeling curious, we ran towards the bushes and decided to investigate what happened.

To our horror, there was a thief. The thief wore dark-coloured clothes and his face was covered with a mask. His cap was pulled down low over his face. The thief was holding a sharp knife and pointed to a woman. The woman has short curly hair and wore a pair of round glasses. She also wore a shiny pearl necklace. She was shivering with fear. 'Help! Help!' she exclaimed. We sweated nervously. Our hearts were in our mouths. We were frightened.

Just then, Superboy appeared. He has big and round eyes. He has short spiky hair. He is strong. He is as strong as an ox. He has a round face too. He looked like Daniel. He was furious. He glared at the thief. 'Stop that thief!' he shouted at the top of his voice. He was very brave. All of a sudden, I realised that Superboy is my friend, Daniel.

Without thinking, Superboy told the woman to remain calm. The thief dashed away. Superboy chased the thief and pinned him to the ground. After that, Superboy called the police quickly. Five minutes later, the policemen arrived and arrested the thief. The woman thanked Superboy and the policemen gratefully. I admire Superboy. He is a hero. I am lucky to have such a special friend.

A Trip to Ocean Park

5D Lau Ching Yin / Charlie

Mr Lee and his family including Mrs Lee, Simon and Ben, went to Ocean Park yesterday. Firstly, they wanted to take a cable car. 'What are we going to do?' asked Simon. 'We are going to ride on a cable car,' answered Mr Lee.

Then, the Lee family felt excited at first. Ben and Simon were scared after the cable car shook and moved very fast. 'I am very scared!' shouted Ben. 'Don't be scared. I am here with you,' said Mr Lee. Next, Mrs Lee shared some cookies with her family. 'The cookies are yummy!' said Ben. 'Let's enjoy this moment together!' Mr Lee said excitedly.

Finally, the cable car worked well and the Lee family went home after visiting Ocean Park. 'Let's go home,' said Mr Lee. 'Good! I want to fall asleep. I am so tired,' said Simon. After that, the Lee family felt happy and satisfied with their trip.

A Picnic Day

6A Lam Man Ho / Eden

One summer day, Natill and his friends, Mon, Trix and Thomnit, decided to have a picnic as they were sick of staying home doing holiday homework. When they got to the local countryside, they could already smell the fresh air of the giant trees as the cool wind breezed past them, making rattling noises. The friends found a flat patch of lush grass and set down their checker-board patterned blanket first. Then they brought out a few thin paper plates and set them on the blanket. After that they took out the snacks and beverages they bought and started gobbling them up. They were having the time of their lives. They thought nothing could ruin this marvelous day. How wrong they were!

Suddenly, it started to rain cats and dogs. The sky was as dark as night and the clouds formed a big, fluffy monstrosity. Natill and his friends were soaking wet so they dashed away to look for shelter, all the while trying not to slip on the muddy puddles. At last, Mon saw a dirty but dry cave not too far away. So they ran towards the cave. They finally made it to shelter. They were all panting breathlessly. But then, they realized that Trix was missing! Natill wanted to go out again to look for him but Mon refused. He didn't want to get wet all over again so they decided to look for him later.

The cave went in pretty deep so Mon decided to discover the cave while they were waiting for the rain to stop. He went deeper into the cave, completely out of sight. Thomnit realized Mon was gone too. He told Natill and they looked everywhere for him. Suddenly, they heard a loud shriek and noises of crunching. The two friends stopped. Their hearts skipped a beat and they were completely traumatized. At that point, their only instinct was to run. They dashed out of the cave and countryside and ran home. They never heard from Mon or Trix ever again.

A Close Scrape with a Crow

6B Su Yan Ho / Jaco

Yesterday was a sunny day. The sky was blue and the trees were waving in the breeze. It was a good day for hiking. Peter decided to go hiking with his dad and mum in the wood. Peter was relaxed and on cloud nine.

Five minutes later, Peter heard some baby crows screaming in their nest. He was curious about what would happen next. 'Maybe the baby crows are hungry,' Peter said to himself curiously.

After a while, Peter climbed up the tree. Suddenly, a mother crow attacked Peter. Peter was at a loss. His voice started to tremble, tears sprang to his eyes and he started to cry. 'Don't use your beak to attack me! It's painful,' Peter said to himself. He was frustrated. The mother crow kept attacking him as it thought that Peter was a hunter who wanted to hurt its babies.

Luckily, some hikers passed by and saw Peter stuck in the tree. 'Calm down, we will help you,' the hikers comforted him. First, one of the hikers used a long stick to push the mother crow to fly away and the other hiker climbed up the tree in order to rescue him. Peter heaved a sigh of relief when he touched the hand of the other hiker. Peter was grateful for all the hikers' help. He had tears of happiness. In this experience, Peter has learnt a lesson that he shouldn't climb up trees and stay close to animals' babies.

A Visit to an Old People's Home

6C Ho Ching Huen / Cherry

30th September, 2021 (Thursday)

Sunny

This morning, my friends and I visited Sunshine Old People's Home. First of all, we played Chinese chess with Grandpa Chan. It was fun. He was excited. Then, we talked to them. They felt happy. Other children took care of the old people. They were helpful.

Then, my partner and I took out the presents and sent them to the elderly. They felt happy. The old people thanked us quickly after receiving the gifts. We felt happy.

Suddenly, we found there weren't enough presents. We were at a loss. My partner hurriedly asked me to have a good idea. I shook my head. She looked disappointed. I had to tell her there must be a way.

Then, I thought for a long time. At last I came up with a good idea. I told her I was just going out. She nodded. I ran to the store after a long search. I finally found something that suited him. I hurried back. I gave the gift to Grandpa Chan. He looked very happy. It's gratifying to see him so happy. I gave him a sunbonnet because the weather has been very hot recently. The sun is bigger. Grandpa Chan likes to go for walks, so this visor fitted him perfectly.

I hope I can come again to share my love and joy with the elderly. I learned a lesson. I should prepare well and bring more gifts for the visit.

A Picnic Day

6D Cheung Man Ching / Miko

It was a sunny day. The sky was bright and clear. Tom and his friends had a picnic in the country park. Although they could hear birds singing, they were very famished. Tom said, 'I can't wait to eat delicious food!' So, they finished a lot of yummy food and had a conversation. Tom told a joke and made his friends laugh. They were very joyful.

Suddenly, there was a rainstorm with thunder and lighting and the trees were on fire! Maybe somebody was smoking and the weather was very bad so the trees were on fire. They felt flustered and fled. Tom discovered a cave and said, 'It is very dangerous! We need to go into the cave!' But this cave was the most dangerous in the country park.

At last, Tom and his friends saw a big spider. The big spider felt very livid because it thought Tom and his friends came to destroy its home. So the big spider made a harsh sound and attacked them. When his friends were running away from the big spider, the big spider immediately caught his friends and ate them. His friends were dead. Tom was flustered and said, 'I can't believe this scene!' The big spider was eating the dead bodies while Tom was getting away from the cave. Tom ran very fast so that the big spider couldn't see him. Tom got out of the cave. He found someone for help in the heavy rain. Tom's clothes were soaked so he was sick and had a fever.

Finally, Tom's condition got worse so he died in the county park. Nobody knew this matter.
