Today was an unforgettable day for me! This morning, Dad took me and our dog, Puppy, to Joy Park because we wanted to play badminton. I was on cloud nine because I love to play with Puppy.

In the park, Dad and I started to play badminton while someone was playing volleyball behind us. One hour later, I found that Puppy was lost! Someone threw a ball and Puppy chased after the ball. Dad and I looked around in the park but we still couldn't find Puppy. We had butterflies in our stomachs.

Suddenly, we heard a dog barking. Luckily, Puppy ran to us. We were surprised and I hugged Puppy tightly.

Finally, three of us went home together. I was on top of the world! I will not forget today and I will pay attention to my dog next time when I go out with it.

Besides, we can eat a lot of different delicious food such as sausages, sandwiches, chicken wings, potato chips and cookies with our teachers and classmates. I like eating these yummy foods a lot!

Also, I can chat with many teachers. We can talk about music, daily life and our experiences. I am fond of chatting with my teachers because all of my teachers are so nice and kind to me.

I love the school picnic because it is fun, enjoyable and precious. I always have a great time with my teachers, classmates, schoolmates and friends at the school picnic. I look forward to the school picnic every year.

It is a sunny Friday morning. Ann, Gigi and Leo are busy cleaning their classroom during recess at ten-thirty. The children are smiling as they work together. Ann sweeps the floor carefully, Gigi uses a wet cloth to clean the blackboard and Leo wipes the desks until they are clean and shiny. Everything seems tidy and perfect! The children feel proud of their hard work.

Suddenly, a big yellow and black bee flies into the classroom. It is buzzing loudly around the room and the children stop what they are doing. Ann screams loudly, 'Ahh, a bee!' and she drops the broom on the floor. Gigi holds the wet cloth and cries. She is very scared. Leo tries to stay calm, but he is still shivering and keeps looking at the bee. The children feel very scared and frightened. They do not know what to do as the bee flies closer and closer.

After a while, a janitor walks by. The janitor hears the noises and rushes to help. Then, she claps her hands hard and waves a piece of paper to chase the bee away. The bee feels very angry and it flies out of the window. The children are thankful and proud of the janitor. Later, Gigi says happily with a big smile, 'Thank you for your kind help!' Everyone feels delighted and supercalifragilisticexpialidocious. In the end, everyone is safe.

Lesson Learned

4A Huang Xingyue/Natalie

Yesterday, David and Tim were playing football in the garden. They were happy and excited. Later, David kicked the ball but he broke the window. Then a woman was angry and she said, 'What are you doing to my window?' David and Tim were scared and they said, 'Don't worry! We can buy a new one for you'. Then they said sorry to her.

Suddenly, David and Tim's dad and mum bought a new window for the woman.

David and Tim learned a lesson. They should not play football in the garden. They should play football in the football field.

The Red Model Car

4B Lau Yat Shun/Jacko

Last Sunday was my birthday. Dad took me to Super Toy Shop in Shatin because I wanted to buy a birthday present. When we arrived at the toy shop, Dad said, 'Happy Birthday! You can choose one of the toys. There were different kinds of toys such as teddy bears, model cars and puzzles. I was dazzled.

Then, a red model car caught my eyes. I was over the moon. I whispered, 'Wow! It is my dream car!' I couldn't wait to try the red model car. I asked the shopkeeper, 'Can I try?' She replied nicely, 'Sure!'

However, it was not easy to control the model car well. The model car ran out of the toy shop. Next, the model car went into the lift and the lift's door closed. I had butterflies in my stomach because the model car disappeared. I ran towards my dad immediately and told him about the event. 'I'm sorry, Dad.' I said worriedly.

After a while, a boy brought the red model car back to me. He asked, 'Is it your model car?' I was surprised and said, 'Yes, thank you for your help!' In the end, Dad bought the red model car for my birthday present. I was as happy as a lark.

From now on, I will take good care of my toys.

Sunny and windy

Today was our school picnic. The sun was shining brightly in the blue sky. The trees were swaying in the breeze. The class teacher took us to Po Leung Kuk Jockey Club Pak Tam Chung Holiday Camp. We went there by school bus at nine o'clock in the morning. Everybody was enjoying themselves.

After one hour, we arrived there. The campsite was huge and clean. We sat on the picnic mat and ate a lot of yummy food such as chicken wings, fish balls and sausages. I felt joyful and chatted with each other happily.

After we finished eating, I was excited to play with my classmates and teachers. There were lots of facilities. I couldn't wait to play on the slide, the big swing, the see-saw and the monkey bars in the children's playground. Later, I still had a lot of energy. So I played hide-and-seek and 'What's the time, Mr. Fox?' with my classmates. I was glad that I could win these two games.

Then, I flew a kite into the sky. Suddenly, a strong wind blew. My kite got stuck in a tree! I felt shocked and said, 'On no! What should I do?' Luckily, Mr. Max helped me to get the kite in the tree. I was relieved and said thank you to Mr. Max.

In the end, we went home by school bus at three o'clock in the afternoon. I was over the moon because the games were fun and we could play with a lot of facilities with my friends. What a wonderful day!

The Ripped Comic

5A Chow Yan Chun/Theodore

Saturday morning, Ben wanted to read some books so he went to the library and borrowed a comic book. He felt excited.

When he got home, he started to read the book in the afternoon. When he was reading the book, he found some pages that he loved a lot so he ripped them out from the book. Ben was so naughty!

Next Saturday, Ben went to the library to return the comic book. When he was returning the comic book to the librarian, he felt very nervous. Ben pretended nothing happened although he was very nervous.

While he was handing the book over to the librarian, he carelessly dropped the book on the floor. And the book just happened to open on the pages that Ben had ripped out. Then the librarian saw that the pages were ripped out. Ben was so scared. At the end, Ben decided to tell the truth. Ben said, 'I'm... I'm sorry for ripping the pages out from the comic book because I like those pages very much. Let me bring the comic book home to fix the pages and bring it back.' The librarian replied, 'I forgive you this time since you were willing to tell the truth.' Then Ben went home with the comic book happily. From then on, Ben learned that even though he liked the pages a lot, he should not rip the pages from the book.

Yesterday, I went to a park with Daniel. Suddenly, we heard a woman screaming loudly. We went over there immediately and wanted to see what was going on. We saw a thief robbing the woman. The thief was about twenty years old, with a flat cap and short straight black hair with a fringe. He had big eyes but he wore a face cloth so I couldn't see his nose, mouth and ears. He was thin but he had a fat belly. He wore a T-shirt. He had a wound on his arm.

The thief shouted at the woman, 'Give me all your things!' The woman was very scared because the thief used a knife to point to her. The woman was about forty years old, with short curly hair. She had glasses and a pair of earrings. She had a big mouth and a crystal necklace. She was in a beautiful dress and a designer handbag. She shouted loudly, 'Can anyone help me please?'

Just then, Superboy flew from the sky. He looked like Daniel but he was much taller and stronger. He wore a Superboy suit with a diamond picture. He also wore red underpants and long boots. Superboy kicked the thief's face and said to the woman, 'I will catch the thief and save you!' The woman was stunned. The thief tried to run away in the confusion. But Superboy caught the thief promptly. The woman said to Superboy, 'You're so brave and bold. Thank you for your help!'

I think that Superboy is very mysterious. In fact, Daniel is Superboy. I promised to Daniel to keep his secret and I will treat him to dinner when I see him again. I hope we can help people together in future.

Gordon Learns some Manners

5C Chan Chi Nga/ Victoria

In the afternoon, Gordon waited for his helper, Lily, to pick him up from the learning centre. However, Lily was late because she was busy with housework. At that time, Gordon murmured, 'Where is Lily?' and he lost his patience. A few minutes later, Lily was there. Then, Gordon shouted at Lily loudly, 'You are three minutes late! Carry my school bag!'

After a while, Gordon and Lily were back at home. Suddenly, Lily broke Gordon's sunglasses accidentally. At that moment, Lily mistakenly made Gordon angrier. Then, he scolded Lily loudly. Lily was sad and explained, 'I'm sorry but I didn't break your sunglasses on purpose.' Thanks to Gordon's loud voice which drew his parents' attention. They came out from their rooms and wanted to know this situation.

After Gordon's parents listened to both their explanations, Dad blamed Gordon, 'Lily is here to take care of you. You should be nice to her. You shouldn't be rude to her.' Gordon's mum also said, 'You shouldn't put your sunglasses on the shoe cupboard.' Gordon felt apologetic for being rude to Lily after he listened to his parents.

Next, Gordon apologised to Lily, 'Sorry Lily, I shouldn't shout at you. I should control my temper. You are very nice to me and look after me every day.' At the end, Lily accepted Gordon's apology and she promised to buy a new pair of sunglasses for him.

Change for the Better

5C Okorie Ruth Amarachi

Last Saturday morning, Gordon Romsey was having an elite Chinese lesson at Elite Learning Centre. When he was alone after the lesson, he waited outside for his helper, Lily. A few minutes later, Lily was still not there. Whilst other kids were waiting for their parents or helpers, Gordon was looking at his watch furiously. When Lily arrived, Gordon was about to blow a fuse! 'You're three minutes late! Carry my school bag right this instant!' Gordon said vehemently. Lily had no choice but to take his school bag indisposedly.

An hour later, they arrived home together. When Gordon was having an afternoon nap in his room, Lily cleaned the house quietly, so she wouldn't disturb Gordon. When she started cleaning the cupboard, that's when everything started going downhill.

She was trying to dust the cupboard when she mistakenly tipped over the glasses that Mrs. Romsey used. 'Oh my gosh!' cried Lily. 'I'm sure that cost at least one-thousand dollars because it is from Gucci!' she cried nervously. Gordon rushed out of his room when he heard the crash. He was very mad, so much so that he crossed his arms, looked at her mercilessly and started screaming at her inhumanly! When his parents heard the commotion, they came out of their room. 'This is always what happens when a new helper comes! Please stop behaving rudely to all the helpers we hire! I have told you that more than once. Please stop, Gordon. Please be nice for once...' his dad lectured his son. Meanwhile, Mom was reassuring Lily. 'I feel so bad for breaking your glasses, Mrs. Romsey.' apologized Lily. 'Oh, it's fine. I can always buy a new pair. Gordon, apologise to Lily now!'. 'I'm sorry, Lily. I hope you can forgive me.' said Gordon. Lily said it was fine and just told him not to do it again.

At the end, Gordon realized he was a bad boy and promised to change for the better. His parents were happy to hear that and Lily was relieved for his willingness to change.

My Most Unforgettable Birthday

5D Chan Pak Yat/Aidan

Yesterday morning, the Lee family went to Ocean Park, because it was Simon's birthday. It was a nice and sunny day. They were on cloud nine.

Then, they went to the cable car station. Simon asked, 'Dad, are there rides on the other side of the mountain?' Dad replied, 'Yes, there are a lot of rides over there. We can get on the cable car to go there.' When they chatted happily, the cable car was shaking and stopped because Simon yelled. 'The cable car is shaking and we are trapped.' Dad replied, 'Don't worry! The staff made a mistake and stopped the car. Calm down.' They felt nervous. After a while, Simon and Ben whispered to Mum. 'Mum, we are hungry, can we eat some food?' Mum agreed, 'It is a good idea.' They enjoyed a lot of yummy food such as rice balls, juice and bananas. They were very full.

Thirty minutes later, the cable car moved again. They arrived to the summit of the cable car station. They went to Marine World to play on the rides immediately. Simon loved the 'Wild Twister' a lot. He played on it twice. Simon smiled, 'It is my most unforgettable birthday ever.'

May's Mobile Phone

6A Yan Long Yin/Owen

Yesterday was a beautiful, sunny day. The sun was bright and the sky was clear. Sam, John and May went to Go Park to have a barbecue. They prepared a lot of food, such as sandwiches, salad and sausages. They were over the moon!

A few minutes later, when they were walking over the bridge, May's mobile phone dropped into the pond from her pocket. She was shocked. She screamed loudly, 'Oh no! My mobile phone! What an awful day!' She was upset. Her tears welled up in her eyes.

Just then, John said to May tenderly, 'Don't worry, May. I have an idea. Let me help you.' Meanwhile, he took out a net from his backpack. He used the net to pick up the mobile phone from the pond. May was overjoyed and said, 'Thank you, John. You are nice.'

In the end, May learnt a lesson that she should not put her mobile phone in her pocket. She should keep it safely in her backpack.

A Visit to Elderly Home

6B Mok Wing Fan/Jacob

25th October, 2024 (Sunday)

Sunny

It was a wonderful sunny day today. The trees were waving in the breeze. Sam, Ben, May, Mary and I went to Sunshine Old People's Home to visit the elderly.

When we arrived Sunshine Old People's Home, we chatted and played with the elderly. Mary and May chatted with two elderly people happily. Sam and I played Chinese Chess with Grandpa Chan and we were over the moon. Ben helped an elderly person to walk to his chair. We were as happy as a lark.

Later, we gave the present to the elderly one by one. They were on cloud nine when they got their presents. We were so excited to pass on happiness to them.

Just then, Mary whispered to me, 'The presents we brought are not enough for the elderly! What can we do? What can we do?' Her throat went dry. Her palms moistened. She was at a loss and she didn't know what to do. Suddenly, an idea popped out in my brain. 'How about we perform some magic tricks for them?' I suggested. 'It's a goat solution!' she said with a big smile.

Finally, we performed some magic tricks for the elderly people instead of giving them presents, they were overjoyed. Also, we were elated too. We all have learnt a lesson that we should give happiness to others. What a wonderful day today!

A Picnic Day

6C Cheung Man Sum/Yoko

It was a sunny day. The sun was bright and the sky was clear and blue. Yesterday, Sam, Tom, Kingsley and Cyrus went to Sunshine Country Park since it was Cyrus's birthday. They brought a lot of food and snacks, including chicken wings, cakes and chips. Cyrus walked along whistling, as happily as a lark. They couldn't wait to have a picnic. After a while, they arrived at Sunshine Country Park. There was a barbecue place, a park and a picnic site. They found a place and set the food on a picnic mat. Kingsley was so hungry that his stomach rumbled. "I'm so hungry that I could eat a horse! Let's start to eat!" said Kingsley excitedly. When they started to eat, suddenly a tree was on fire. "Oh no! The tree is burning! What should we do now?" Tam asked. Tom was so frightened that his heart missed a beat. Cyrus's legs were trembling. He was at a loss. He didn't know what to do. Sam looked around. Suddenly an idea popped up in Sam's mind. "Calm down everyone! There is a cave! Let's go into it," suggested Sam. All of them ran into the cave immediately.

The cave was dark and moist. They were talking in the cave while they were walking. "Why did the tree suddenly burn?" asked Kingsley. "I think people didn't put out the fire after they had a barbecue," Cyrus replied. They went very far. Tom said, "Oh no! We can't find the exit. We've got lost!" Suddenly, they heard some sounds. A pair of bright eyes appeared in front of them. "A monster!" yelled Cyrus. The monster had big eyes. They were scared. The monster said, "Don't be afraid! Although I am a monster, I won't hurt you! What's the matter? Why did you come to this cave?" asked the monster. Cyrus replied. "The trees were burning outside so we came. Now we are lost!" The monster said, "Let me help you escape!" Then the monster took them out of the cave and used its saliva to put out the fire.

Suddenly Cyrus felt someone slap his face and heard "Wake up! Wake up!" Cyrus woke up in his bed and said, "It was just a dream but I am already late for school." Finally Cyrus was punished by Mr. Jong because he was late. Cyrus has learnt a lesson. He should be calm when he is in danger.

Super Basketball Shoes

6D Leung Ming Hei/Theodore

Last Sunday, the day was sunny, the birds were singing, the flowers were smiling and the trees were breezing. Ben had a basketball competition in school. Ben felt excited. Soon, he brought a pair of spring shoes quietly to the changing room. No one knew about that and he wore his shoes as carefully as a snake.

After a while, the competition was about to start. Ben's teammates said seriously, 'Did you wear the super basketball shoes?' Ben said, 'Don't worry. I have already put them on.' Then the competition started, the competition was intense! Ben jumped as high as a rocket and won the trophy. He was as happy as a lark and his teammates were as proud as peacocks.

Suddenly, the referee found out the truth and said, 'Ben you are disqualified from the competition because you violated the rules.' Ben's face was as white as a ghost.

At the end, Ben apologised to the teachers and his teammates. He learnt a lesson that he should be honest and follow the rules.
